Mind fullness?

– How to think like Jesus Christ

We all know the comical stereotypes of the Church: ineffectual, out of touch, divided, hypocritical, weak-minded, etc. So how should Jesus Christ's followers work together and fruitfully impact the City and the world for good? In his letter to the Philippians, the Apostle Paul says it requires having the ambitions, and attitudes of Jesus - the 'mind of Christ'. Come and hear what's involved in thinking this way.

Questions for life (25 March – 12 April): Christians in workplaces across central London will be helping small groups of friends and colleagues hear and engage with the answers that Jesus Christ gives to life's biggest questions. Please get in touch if you'd like help to put on a simple breakfast, lunch or dinner 'dialogue' event for some of your colleagues and contacts.

Speaker: William Taylor and Charlie Skrine
